This is a modern exposure done by a dag artist in Georgia, incised on reverse of plate with full info, date, etc. so that nobody will ever sell it as a period photo. Copied from the ambrotype by Abraham Byers, May 1858, Ostendorf #5. Done on an old original dag plate which was repolished and re-exposed. When I first saw this I thought it was a period copy and instantly thought big money. The slight tarnish and light rubbing only add authenticity to it.
